

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 27TH JUNE

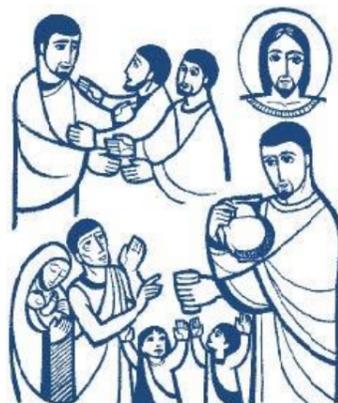

Jesus' mission is one of healer; our prayer and relationship with him is one which heals past bitterness, guilt, grudges and anger. Can you come to him in confidence that he can heal all this within you?

Deaths

We remember in our prayers Mary O'Brien, Belmont Avenue, may she rest in peace.
Our sympathy to her family, friends and neighbours.

Our Lady's Crown Prayer

Most Glorious Queen of Heaven and Mother of God,
You whom the Blessed Trinity has crowned with unequalled glory.
You are the Sovereign Queen over all God's Creation.
I place myself and all my loved ones under the power, protection, and sovereignty of your Crown.
Under the protection of your crown I will fear no other crown and through your immense intercessory power
I ask you to spare us all from the effects of the corona virus.

Dearest Mother and Queen,
We, your children in Christ Jesus,
Ask you to obtain for us
An end to the spread of this virus. Amen

The Memorare

There will be a second collection (at the door) at all Masses next weekend
3rd /4th July in aid of Peter's Pence.

Feast Days of the Week

- Monday St. Irenaeus. Lived just after the time of the apostles. He became Bishop of Lyons.
- Tuesday Ss' Peter & Paul. We celebrate the twin founders of the Church in Rome.
- Wednesday The First Martyrs of Rome.
- Thursday St Oliver Plunkett, bishop and martyr.
- Saturday St. Thomas. Is said to have preached the gospel in India where he was martyred.

Wedding Haircut

A man, from Gougane Barra, went for a haircut and was so fussy about getting the right kind of haircut that the barber asked him, "Why are you fussy about your haircut." The man told him that he was getting married in a few days' time and wanted everything to be right for the wedding.

"Where is the wedding taking place?" the barber asked.

"In the church in Gougane Barra." "What a place for a wedding," said the barber "the church is too small: it can hold only about 30 to 40 people. It is always raining there and if it is not raining ye will be frozen with the cold."

"Where is the reception?" "In Creedon's Hotel in Inchigeela," the man replied. "What a kip of a place. The food is terrible and the service is atrocious with the staff completely laid back with no interest in what they are doing, and "where are ye going for the honeymoon?" "To Rome where we hope to see the Pope." "To see the Pope!! He will be so far away from ye that he will only be the size of a postage stamp."

Six weeks later, after his return from the honeymoon, he met the barber again. "Well", said the barber, "How did the wedding go" "The wedding was the most wonderful day of my life and the weather in Gougane Barra was wonderful, the sun shone for us and there was not a drop of rain and the birds matched the choir in singing for us." And the hotel? The meal was wonderful, the service was first class with the staff so kind and so helpful. There was nothing they would not do for us "And the visit to Rome?

"An unforgettable experience, my wife has a priest friend in Rome who arranged a private audience with the Pope. And what did the Pope say to ye?

He looked at me and said "O, my God who gave you that haircut?"
