

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 30th October
God loves everything he creates; nothing he makes is evil.
Similarly, he loves and befriends each of his people and the gospel story is of Jesus' friendship with a man whom everyone else looked down on.

Deaths

We remember in our prayers Mary Galway, Carrigmore Park, Archbishop Patrick Coveney, Crosshaven and Patricia (Pat) Joyce, Willow Lawn, may they rest in peace. Our prayerful condolences to their families, relatives, friends, and neighbours.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

October Safeguarding Month

As we start to see church activities increase, we are always looking at updating our policies, guidance and forms. We have updated all forms/templates to make them user friendly and we have introduced a Safeguarding Policy for Pilgrimages. These can be found on the safeguarding page of the Diocesan website. www.corkandross.org/safeguarding

Feast days of the week

Monday 31st (Cloyne) Bl. Dominic Collins was born around 1566 in Youghal, Co. Cork. In 1598, after a military career, he entered the Society of Jesus as a brother. He returned to Ireland in 1601, but on 17th June 1602 he was captured by the English who tried in vain to make him renounce his faith.
Condemned to death, he was hanged in his native city in October 1602.

Tuesday 1st All Saints The ultimate object of veneration of the Saints is the glory of God and the sanctification of man by conforming one's life, to the diving will and by imitating the virtue of those who were preeminent disciples of the Lord.

Wednesday 2nd The Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed.

Thursday 3rd St. Malachy was born near Armagh in 1094. He became Vicar of Ceallach, the reforming Bishop of Armagh, and he continued this work of reform as Bishop of Connor and, later, Bishop of Armagh. Earlier he had restored the monastery of Bangor and in 1142 founded the monastery of Mellifont, the first Cistercian house in Ireland. He had visited St. Bernard at Clairvaux on a journey to and from Rome in 1139. He also introduced the Canons Regular into Ireland. In 1148 Malachy set out from Ireland to meet the Pope but died on his way at Clairvaux, where he caught fever and died in the arms of Bernard and is buried in the abbey church.

Friday 4th St. Charles Borromeo, 1538-84, Cardinal Archbishop of Milan at the age of twenty-one, worked for reform in his diocese, drafting the Catechism of the Council of Trent. Patron saint of catechists and seminarians.

The next Garda Forum Meeting will be held on Wednesday 9th November at 8.00pm in the Community Centre. Come along we would like to hear from you.
Local Councillors have been invited to attend.

Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,

We pray for the people of Ukraine today.

We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.

We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that you are Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.

We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment, and compassion to guide their decisions.

We pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.

We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.

EDEL QUINN Prayer Group

We meet every Thursday in the Pastoral Centre at 8pm.

All welcome.
