Deaths

We remember in our prayers Pádraig (Pat) Murphy, Boreenmanna Road and Brendan Whooley, Ballinlough, may they rest in peace, our sympathies to their families, friends, and kind neighbours.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Feast Days of the Week.

St. Columba, also known as Colum Cille, was born in Gartan, Co. Donegal in 521. He studied under St. Finnian of Moville and St. Finnian of Clonard. He founded monasteries in Derry, Durrow, Iona, and Kells. He left Ireland, either for penance or to be a pilgrim for Christ, but Iona became his principal foundation. From Columba is noted for his great love for people and for all living creatures.

St. Barnabas was born on the island of Cyprus. He was one of the first converts in Jerusalem and preached at Antioch. He became a companion of St. Paul and went with him on his first missionary journey.

St. Anthony died in Padua in 1231 at the age of thirty-six. Born in Portugal, he had joined the Franciscans and preached against heresy throughout France and Italy.

St. Davnet lived and died at Sliabh Beagh, Co. Monaghan.

The ability to be able to say 'I'm sorry' can be powerful. I am sure we can recall moments in our own lives when we did not do so, and we know we should have. There was an element of pride or a fear of feeling vulnerable and weak to say sorry. No matter what our age, to say we got it wrong is not the end of the world. It implies honesty and openness. It implies that we are willing to move on and try again. It does not mean that we will never get it wrong again, but it does mean we are willing to give it our best. Our ability to say sorry may be rusty. Is there anyone in my life to whom I need to say sorry?
